Seller Responsibilities: Delivery

The "Property or equipment" shall be shipped or delivered, from Seller to Buyer, within _____ calendar days from the date of payment.

The "equipment" shall be shipped using the carrier/delivery agent _____ and their _____ service. This shipment will be insured in the amount of $ _____.

Seller will email Buyer a tracking number within 24 hours of shipment.

The seller is directly and personally responsible and liable for the "property or equipment" , and the value of such, up to and until delivery is made to and confirmed by the buyer and/ or the delivery agent (i.e. FedEx, UPS, Custom PRO, Etc.) Should any loss or damage occur prior to transit or while in transit, the seller (and his or her shipping agent) is liable and is responsible for any loss or damage and must reimburse the buyer appropriately with either a replacement, even exchange, or money back.

Seller Responsibilities: Authenticity, Title

In the unlikely event it is proven that the "Property or equipment" is 1) not "original" and/ or 2) not described as sold, payment made to buyer to seller will be credited, reversed, or refunded. It is in the best interest of Custom PRO Audio/Video, Inc. to make sure the customer gets what they paid for. Both buyer and seller have performed due diligence on this matter, in advance of this agreement, in order to mitigate the possibility of any issues related to these contingencies.
